	GTA HO	NOR AWARDS PROGRAM

1. In accordance with Regulation dated 20 February 1953 the Agency may grant honor awards to CIA personnel who perform acts of valor or exemplary achievement in the national security interest. To this end, the CIA Honor mards Board has been created to set the standards for Agency awards, and to make recommendations to the Director for his approvalo

2. The principle of recognizing individuals for deeds performed above and beyond the call of duty is traditional. Deeds requiring a high order of personal courage have been and will be performed by CIA personnel who are engaged in the support of United States intelligence activities. Similarly, CIA individuals have made and will make singularly important and highly significant contributions of a nonvalorous nature to the national intelligence effort. Although the anonymity demanded by our profession militates against overt forms of recognition, certain honor awards are available which will meet security considerations so that deserving personnel may receive special recognition.

3. Awards Presently Available
